STRATEGIC GOALS

When the Board of Education adopted its 5-year Strategic Plan in 2016, it was structured into key focus areas, each with goals and sub-goals. The underlying objective is to propel the Brookfield School District and its students to excellence. The four cornerstones of that framework are:

Goals for Learning— What We Teach & Why We Teach It

A master curriculum strategy, which fosters coherence across subjects and grades, and drives to the highest levels of quality education and achievement for our learners.

Teaching for Learning— How We Teach & Continuous Improvement

A plan for excellence in our educators and leadership, focusing on differentiated instructional strategies and provision of feedback to support all learners.

Measures of Learning— When We Know Our Students Have Learned

Improved use of assessments and measurements, focused on improving educational results.

Coherence of Systems & Structures

Aligned school operations to best support quality education, including efficient well-controlled business management, technology capacity, facilities and communications.
