

AdministrationAdministrative Operations

The policies developed by the board of education, and the administrative regulations, developed to implement policy, are designed to increase the probability of an effective and efficient school system. Consequently, it is assumed that all board employees and students shall carry them out. In an attempt to insure equitable and just treatment of all, suggestions for changes in, revisions of, or additions to existing policies and regulations are welcomed from citizens, employees, students and administrators.

The educational hierarchy, those in super ordinate positions are responsible for informing subordinates of existing policies and regulations and for seeing that they are implemented in the spirit intended. Continuous disregard for board policy and administrative regulation may be interpreted as willful neglect of duty and may constitute grounds for dismissal.
