

Instruction

Independent Study

The Brookfield Board of Education permits the establishment of independent study programs by students.

The purpose of independent study is to provide individual educational experience for students in which they assume responsibility for initiation, planning and evaluation components of their learning. Release time from school may be approved by the local administrator for eligible students to conduct their study programs outside of the school facilities as appropriate.

Policy
adopted: 10/19/1994

BROOKFIELD PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Brookfield, Connecticut