

Community Relations

Loitering or Causing Disturbance

Public Conduct on School Property

No person on school property shall:

- injure or threaten to injure another person
- damage the property of another person or of the school district
- violate any provision of the law of the State of Connecticut or the Town of Brookfield
- conduct himself/herself in such a manner as to impede, delay or otherwise interfere with the orderly conduct of the educational program of the school district or such other activities as have been authorized by the Board, the Superintendent or a duly authorized administrator
- enter upon any portion of school premises at any time for purposes other than those which are lawful and /or authorized by the Board of Education.

Legal Reference:        Connecticut General Statutes
                                  53a-185 Loitering in or about school grounds;
                                  Class C misdemeanor

