

Instruction

Organizations/Association

Student Government

The elementary and secondary schools of Brookfield may maintain student councils. The student councils should serve as a forum for communication between students and the professional staff on school-wide matters of concern and interest to the students and to provide for opportunity for training in the democratic processes.

Student councils are representative bodies whose members are elected democratically by their fellow students.

Faculty advisors for student councils will be recommended for appointment by the administration.

Policy
adopted: 10/19/1994

BROOKFIELD PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Brookfield, Connecticut