

Personnel - CertificatedPromotion/DemotionPromotion

All promotions within the instructional and administrative staff of the Brookfield Public Schools will be considered under the same policy as that governing original assignments. The superintendent of schools is responsible for recommending a candidate for a vacant position to the board of education which will approve or disapprove the recommendation. In no case, however, will the board promote personnel without the recommendation of the superintendent.

Promotions means any position which pays a salary differential and/or involving an additional higher level of responsibility, with the exception of the position of superintendent.

Vacancies means openings which are caused by death, retirement, discharge, resignation or by the creation of a new position.
