2. Tenured Teachers

The contract of employment of a teacher who has attained tenure shall be continued from school year to school year, except that it may be terminated at any time or one or more of the following reasons:

- a. Inefficiency or incompetence
- b. Insubordination against reasonable rules of the board of education.
- c. Moral misconduct
- d. Disability, as shown by competent medical evidence
- e. Elimination of the position to which the teacher was appointed or loss of a position to another teacher, in accordance with Connecticut General Statutes 10-151(d)(5).
- f. Other due and sufficient cause.

Prior to terminating a contract, a board of education shall vote to give the teacher concerned a written notice that termination of such teacher is under consideration and, upon written request filed by such teacher with such board within seven days after receipt of such notice, shall within the next succeeding seven days give such teacher a statement in writing of the reasons therefor. Within twenty days after receipt of written notice by the board of education that contract termination is under consideration, such teacher may file with such board a written request for a hearing. Such hearing shall commence within fifteen days after receipt of such request, unless the parties mutually agree to an extension, as provided by law.

Suspension

The superintendent may suspend an employee pending board action when, in the opinion of the Superintendent, continuation of the employee in the position presents a clear danger to the students, staff, property or reputation of the school system.
